

HIVSA, an NGO established in 2002, has reached millions of people since its inception 20 years ago. In this time, HIVSA has had a huge impact on many lives, improving services and access to treatment and vital health information.

Preventing mother-to-child transmission of HIV

160 039

Women provided with PMTCT health talks at clinics

72 000

Breastfeeding demonstrations

25 000

Packs of baby formula distributed through Orange Babies

People served

Over 5,5 million

including Choma social media engagement

Community HIV testing and linkages

88 695

People linked to HIV treatment and care

405 604

People tested for HIV

4961

HIV self-screening kits distributed

8672

People trained on HIV Testing Services

Community COVID-19 support

55 446

People screened for COVID-19

5600

Food parcels and grocery vouchers distributed for COVID-19 relief

22 500

Surgical and cloth face masks distributed to DoH, DSD, SAPS and traffic enforcement

66 674

People screened for responsible alcohol use

Orphans, vulnerable children and youth

55 811

Adolescent girls and young women received psychosocial support

419 708

Orphans, vulnerable children and youth served in PHVP

179 560

Adolescent girls and young women served in preventing HIV in vulnerable people program (PHVP)

7712

People reached through Stepping Stones sessions related to gender norms

Home-based support

65 000

Johnson & Johnson hygiene packs distributed

Choma Digital Health Magazine

3,9 million

People reached via Choma
on topics of sexual and reproductive health, HIV, mental health, gender-based violence and relationship dynamics

Choma awards

2021: Best Online Newsletter

2020: Blogging Excellence

2019: Best Public Service and NPO Platform

2017: Most Innovative Social Media Campaign

